

"At The Heart of Christianity"

Summer Ecumenical Institute

Calgary, Alberta
June 3-6, 2002

Keynote Speaker - Herbert O'Driscoll

A renowned international and ecumenical lecturer, author, broadcaster and hymn writer, he has received five honorary doctorates and has lectured widely in the effect of change on individuals and organizations.

He will address the relationship between the Christian faith and Western culture – the huge changes being faced, changes that are affecting all of Christian experience. We may respond to this cultural pressure in different ways according to our different traditions; but respond we must. "There is a deep spiritual hunger that is deepening, not lessening. The question for the churches is that this comes with a deepening distrust of all institutionalism and an even deeper distrust of hierarchy."

Brother Gilles Bourdeau and Sister Anne Keffer

Rev. Richard Le Sueur – Desert Spirituality, Anglican Priest
