COLLABORATIVE MINISTRIES CONFERENCE

Ecumenism in Action!!

“ Ministering together when we’re small and scattered”

Combining the National Ecumenical Summer Institute and Shared Ministries Conference in a gathering for laity and clergy seeking to fulfill our common calling – sharing, accepting, and acting in Christian unity.

PLENARY SESSIONS, WORKSHOPS, AND WORSHIP

APRIL 18-21, 2005
Sheraton Cavalier Hotel
Saskatoon, SK.

Hosted by: The Prairie Centre for Ecumenism
600 – 45th St. W.
Saskatoon, SK S7L 5W9
Tel (306) 653-1633 Fax(306) 653-1821
Email: pce@ecumenism.net

PURPOSE

This conference will be a celebration of The Saskatchewan Centennial and will demonstrate how “shared ministries” is part of our spiritual heritage and is contributing to our ecumenical experiences. This conference will provide opportunities for persons to gain insight and share stories regarding both the challenges and possibilities of ecumenical shared ministry in local congregations. Ecumenical sharing can include program, leadership, worship and facilities.

SPEAKERS & LEADERS

Phyllis Anderson

Dr. Anderson is Associate Dean of the School of Theology & Ministry at Seattle University, WA and Director of the Institute for Ecumenical Theological Studies. Her areas of expertise are ecumenism, ecclesiology, and theology of ministry. She is an ordained minister in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. She regularly teaches a course on Ecumenical Theology with a Catholic faculty member.

John Bell

John L. Bell is an ordained minister of the Church of Scotland and a member of the Iona Community. After a period in the Netherlands and two posts in church youth work, he became employed full time in the areas of music and worship with the Wild Goose Resource Group. He is a past convenor of the Church of Scotland’s Panel on Worship and presently convenes the Committee revising the Church Hymnary. A hymn and songwriter, John is primarily concerned with renewal of congregational worship at the grass roots level.
